

Biography of Hugh Nathaniel Halpern

Hugh Halpern was nominated by President Trump to serve as the Director of the Government Publishing Office on October 17, 2019. He served as the Director of Floor Operations in the Office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives before retiring in January 2019 after more than 30 years of service. During his career, he also served as staff director of the House Rules Committee and in various roles on other House committees, including Financial Services, Energy and Commerce, and Public Works and Transportation. He was the recipient of the McCormack Award of Excellence for Congressional Employees, awarded for a lifetime of bipartisanship and service to the House, and holds a bachelor's and master's degree from The American University and a J.D. from the George Mason University School of Law.