

Wayne J. Bena
Nebraska Deputy Secretary of State for Elections

Wayne Bena has served as Nebraska's Deputy Secretary of State since September 2017. In that capacity he oversees the Election Division. He is a former member of the Executive Board of the National Association of State Election Directors.

Prior to his service with the State of Nebraska, Wayne served as Sarpy County Election Commissioner, the state's 3rd largest county, for 8 years.

Wayne received his undergraduate degree and law degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.